Public Transportation

The Georgia Tech Hotel and Conference Center is conveniently located near MARTA (Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority) stations. Attendees can use the MARTA rail system to reach the Midtown station, which is within walking distance of the conference center.

Regrettably, we must inform you that MARTA reimbursement is not feasible for attendees of our conference. This decision arises from the transit authority's policy, which does not permit such reimbursements.*

Parking

On-site parking is available via the parking garage connected to the Georgia Tech Hotel and Conference Center. The garage is accessible near the hotel's main entrance at Spring St. NW and Armstead PI NW (across from Barnes & Noble) or via the garage entrance at Spring St NW and 4th St NW.

Upon checking in at the registration table, the conference organizers will give you a parking validation sticker; PLEASE NOTE – this only covers ONE entry/exit fee. The conference does not cover in and out parking for the entire day.
